

Barb Lownsbury

BIO & SPEAKING TOPICS

Barb is a speaker, author, and entrepreneur with a passion for meaningfully engaging with people! She speaks about transformational leadership, the power of embracing God-given identity in the midst of challenge, and practical ways to move forward on your journey as you work, parent, love and learn. Known for her down-to-earth and inspiring speaking style, Barb equips listeners with practical tools they can immediately implement and use long after they've gone home.

With bachelor's degrees in International History and Education, and an M.S. in Education, Barb has shared about faith, relationships, leadership and courage through trial at conferences and classes throughout the U.S. She is a business owner and serves as the Executive Director for The Dented Fender Ministry.

linkedin.com/in/
barbaralownsbury

instagram.com/
thedentedfender

facebook.com/
thedentedfender

“She's so uplifting!

I have been living in fear recently and feeling a little turned off from God ...

...so her message was very good to hear. I felt hopeful for the first time in a long time!”

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"The message Barb shared was extremely powerful! I've come to realize the more I understand the type of relationship God desires, the closer we will become."

"I love the way Barb ties in scripture references in a way that feels real and not preachy. I never realized how comforting God's word can be."

"I feel empowered to move forward and faithfully pursue my dreams within my family and my business."

God desires a beautiful, amazing journey for each one of us! -Barb Lownsbury